Part X - FIN 48 Footnote

The Center is exempt from Federal income taxes under Section 501 (c) (3) of the Internal Revenue Code.

The Center follows FASB guidance on accounting for uncertainty in income taxes, which addresses the determination of whether tax benefits claimed or expected to be claimed on a tax return should be recorded in the financial statements. Under this guidance, the Center may recognize the tax benefit from an uncertain tax position only if it is more likely than not that the tax position will be sustained on examination by taxing authorities, based on the technical merits of the position. Examples of tax positions include the tax-exempt status of the Center and various positions related to the potential sources of unrelated business taxable income (UBIT). The tax benefits recognized in the financial statements from such a position are measured based on the largest benefit that has a greater than 50 percent likelihood of being realized upon ultimate settlement. The guidance on accounting for uncertainty in income taxes also addresses de-recognition, classification, interest and penalties on income taxes, and accounting in interim periods. As of the year ended December 31, 2022, there were no material unrecognized tax benefits identified or recorded as liabilities.

The Center files Form 990 annually with the Internal Revenue Service. The Center's federal exempt organization tax returns are subject to examination by the Internal Revenue Service, generally for three years after they are filed. All tax returns for the years ending after December 31, 2019 are open for examination.

Looking back, it's hard to believe how far we have come in 15 short years. We've seen our program expand in every conceivable way: more students and community members served, more volunteers and young teachers involved, and more generous support from local companies and organizations. We have seen the grades, literacy rates, and general education of our students reach the levels of their suburban counterparts at a substantial rate, and we couldn't be happier - 90% of our students are working at or above their grade level. We hope to continue preparing a generation of students within the North Linden community to enter the world not only as educated citizens, but also as ones prepared to meet the challenges and struggles of everyday life. Life has been anything but easy for the students we work with, and we will always be grateful for the support and contributions that allow us to make them more capable and prepared to handle the future.

While we are always looking at what we can help our students accomplish next, it's just as important to look back and see our impact up to this point. 97% of our students were at or above their grade level during the third quarter of the 2023 school year, based on school grade cards provided by parents. 90% of our students are at the same learning proficiency levels of their peers in nearby districts, based on Ohio Statewide Tests in 2021-2022. The goals of the Board and staff members of The Hardy Center can be summarized in one word: growth. Growth for our students, growth for their educational capabilities, and growth for the center itself.
